REAL ESTATE TRANSFER ORDINANCES
 (Updated January 12, 2011)

Unless exempt by statute, whenever there is a transfer of title to real property or an Assignment of Beneficial Interest (A.B.I.) in a land trust, state, county, and municipal transfer tax stamps (where applicable) must first be purchased and affixed to the deed or A.B.I. before the document can be recorded. Below is a list of state, county, and municipal requirements relating to real estate transfer. This information is subject to change; contact the appropriate government body for current information. ATG Members who have questions or information on any additional municipalities that impose a transfer tax, require a pre-transfer inspection, or impose other transfer requirements, please contact Arden Miner at 312.752.1407 or aminer@atgf.com. New or modified information since the last update appears in italics. This information is also available on our website, www.atgf.com. † If you own a single-family home in this municipality and you sell that home and buy another home in that same municipality, the transfer tax may be exempt for the second purchase or you may be entitled to a refund. Call the municipality for the procedure for obtaining a refund or exemption. Often, the municipality will require initial payment of the transfer tax and issue a refund later.
